

The Mill Valley Film Festival & The Task Force on the Americas present

AWAKENING FROM SORROW BUENOS AIRES 1997

Meet filmmakers John Knoop & Karina Epperlein and hear what inspired them to produce this documentary.

Their 40-minute film is about a crucial moment in history when the sorrow of young Argentines – whose parents were disappeared, tortured and killed during the 'Dirty War' – is erupting into public action, and becomes a cornerstone for people's movements all over South America.
