

Charlie Hardy, our “Cowboy in Caracas,” is making a rare visit to Marin.

Update on Venezuela's Election Results

Author and former Maryknoll priest Charlie Hardy will give his personal analysis of the recent elections and their impact on Venezuela's Twenty-First Century Socialism. Charlie has been writing and speaking about the political and social reality in Latin America for over forty years. He was born in Wyoming but has made Venezuela his home for nearly two decades. Charlie is a frequent contributor to www.narconews.com and maintains a personal blog, www.cowboyincaracas.com.

COWBOY IN CARACAS by Charles Hardy

"Ironically, 'Cowboy' isn't about Chávez, but about the exciting processes he has helped initiate and about the awakening of Venezuela's poor whom the US media neglects." --Saul Landau

"Before we take one more bite of the toxic propaganda sandwich our government offers...Read this important book, and drop the propaganda sandwich in the trash where it belongs." --Peter Coyote

Tuesday • November 9 • 7:30 PM

THE REDWOODS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

110 Magnolia Avenue • Larkspur

For more information: 415/924-3227
mitf@igc.org, www.mitfamericas.org

$5-10 Donation Suggested
No one turned away for lack of funds