

Meet Social Movement Activists from Honduras

Community organizers representing human rights groups in Honduras bring us up-to-the-minute reports about the social, political, and economic situation in Honduras. They will describe their success in obtaining over 1.3 million signatures demanding a constituent assembly for the rewriting of the current constitution, which was created in 1982 by a military dictatorship with US support.

Miriam Miranda, Coordinator of the Fraternal Organization of Black Hondurans (OFRANEH)

Marcelino Borjas, Advisor to the Honduras Federation of Labor; Professor of Law, Sociology, and Economics

Andres Pavon, Director, Committee for the Defense of Human Rights in Honduras (CODEH)

Angel Antonio Jimenez, Advisor to Campesino Communities and Cooperatives

Tuesday • October 12 • 7 PM

THE REDWOODS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
110 Magnolia Ave • Larkspur

Please join us for a

*Welcome
Dinner*

Proceeds to Benefit Honduras
Social Justice Organizations

$10-25 donation requested

Sponsored by The Task Force on the Americas

For more information: 415/924-3227, mitf@igc.org, www.mitfamericas.org