

A tribute to Howard Zinn

THIS FILM features the actual words (in letters, songs, poems, speeches, and manifestos) of rebels, dissenters, and visionaries from our past—and present—including Frederick Douglass, Susan B. Anthony, Bob Dylan, Langston Hughes, Chief Joseph, Muhammad Ali, as well as unknown veterans, union workers, abolitionists, and many others never mentioned in high school textbooks.

These dramatic moments from our history are brought to life by remarkable musicians and actors.

THE PEOPLE SPEAK
celebrates the extraordinary possibilities for creating social change that ordinary people have realized throughout the course of our nation's rich but often ignored history of dissent and protest.
